Registration Guidelines

- Students must pre-register for classes.
- Payment deadline for the first term is October 8, 2018.
- A late fee of $10 will be added to any registration received after the payment deadline.
- Class size is limited and classes are filled on a first-come, first-served basis.
- We reserve the right to combine or cancel any class not filled to minimum enrollment requirements.
- Each class is important for all students, and missed classes cannot be made up.
- No financial credit will be given for missed classes.
- Visitors are not permitted in the classroom so that each student will be more comfortable making creative choices.
- Each term will conclude with an Observation Day for parents to sit in on their children's classes.

Please note that your student is not officially registered until payment has been processed by Muskegon Civic Theatre. Your child's spot may be filled by another student if your payment is not submitted and there is a wait list for the class.

We accept cash, check or credit card for tuition payment.

Students can be registered online through our website. If you wish to mail in your registration form, you may do so. Please submit all payments via check made payable to:

Adventurous Elective Opportunities!

$75

Make the story come to life in this exciting low-pressure class! Each week features a new story, imaginatively presented through acting, music, movement, and art!

Kindergarten and 1st Grade

10–11am

Broadway Sprouts

$100

Musical theatre has never been more fun! Learn how to combine singing, movement, and acting and become a triple threat! This class performs two small musicals per school year and is designed for the performer who is ready to shine!

2nd and 3rd Grades

11am–12pm

Performance Lab

$100

Both beginning and returning students discover exciting ways to bring characters to life on stage! Students build on established skills and develop more advanced acting techniques. This class culminates in a holiday play in December and another in the spring!

6th–12th Grades

12–1pm

The Crew: Hair & Make-Up

$75

(plus the cost of a make-up kit)

Ever wondered how theatre makeup and costumes can bring a character to life? Learn the basics of makeup, costume design, and prop building in this innovative and exciting new class!

6th–12th Grades

10–11am

Out of the Box

$75

Step into the fantastic world of make believe as we see what the magic box has in store! As they explore life as knights or as a family of squirrels, students will develop skills in listening, speaking, cooperation, and imagination!

Kindergarten and 1st Grade

9–10am

Broadway Jr.

$100

Continue developing your performance skills in this intermediate level musical theatre class! Build on what you know and take your talent to the next level! This class performs two musicals—one holiday musical and one spring musical. There are extra rehearsals beyond the six-week semester for this class.

4th and 5th Grades (or those who have completed Broadway Sprouts)

New Elective Classes for 2018–2019

On Camera Acting

$100

This course is designed for students who are new to being on-camera or those who want to further develop their audition skills and confidence. Students will learn and practice the difference between on stage acting and on camera acting.

6th–12 Grades

11am–12pm

Performance Lab: Musical Theatre

$100

Dive in to the magical world of musical theatre in this new class! Students will add to their basic dance, acting, and vocal skills while exploring more advanced techniques. This class will culminate in an informal, in-class presentation of a musical theatre performance.

6th–12th Grades

1–2pm

The Crew: Props Design

$75

Props used in theatre production can sometimes become as iconic as the production itself! For instance, Dorothy's ruby slippers in The Wizard of Oz, the chandelier in Phantom of the Opera, the leg lamp from A Christmas Story, and Audrey II from Little Shop of Horrors are all world-famous because of their intrinsic association with the shows they were in. Learn how props set the time, place, and further the story in this amazing new class!

6th–12th Grades

10–11am

Drama Tots

$75

Do you have a toddler that has outgrown "baby" activities but is not quite ready for "big kid" classes? Are you looking for new, age-appropriate ways to play and grow? Children need to explore their creative side early on—and we give them the space to do it! This class is designed to give parents and caregivers a chance to spend meaningful time with their children while bonding and learning together.
